Retired Women Teachers of Ontario • Organisation des enseignantes retraitées de l'Ontario

*Mary Jane Finn
President*

As I write this, some four months remain in my term as your Provincial President. My goal at the start of my term was to promote a sense of pride, teamwork, and commitment among RWTO/OERO members. Has this happened?

While visiting you in various parts of the province, I have witnessed the many ways we contribute to our members, our communities, and our world. Through the charitable efforts of individual Branches, such as providing gifts to women's shelters, promoting literacy by giving away books, CDs, and magazines, donating bed kits to children around the world, you demonstrate what a truly caring group we are. We also help each other out by visiting our senior or incapacitated members, celebrating birthdays, remembering deceased members, and giving rides to those who would otherwise be unable to attend a meeting. Many of us, as individuals, volunteer at local hospices, hospitals, service agencies, and non-profit organizations.

The sense of teamwork I have experienced most personally has been the behind-the-scenes efforts from your Board of Directors. Your Provincial team has produced three informative newsletters as well as an instructional website, undertaken initiatives to promote membership, organized Area meetings, planned a memorable Annual Meeting, responded to member requests, maintained goodwill with our senior members, and served us in so many other ways. Your local Branches have excelled at providing you with interesting programs and worthwhile activities while maintaining ties with Provincial. What a pleasure and privilege it has been to visit with you and experience this teamwork!

What about commitment? If you were to look up the word "commit" in a dictionary, you would find, among other meanings, to devote, pledge, involve oneself. My commitment to RWTO/OERO as your Provincial President is ending, but my commitment to this marvellous organization continues. My ninth year of service to Provincial will find me as Past President and chair of several committees. Some new faces will appear on the Provincial Board as outgoing members see the end of their term and incoming members begin their commitment at the Provincial level or some perhaps return but in a different position. Thank you to each one of you for your devoted service to the over 5,000 members, whether you are leaving the Board, continuing with the Board, or coming on to the Board. Appreciation is also extended to those of you who have pledged to serve on the Executive of local Branches in various positions of responsibility. Your commitment to RWTO/OERO has been exemplary whether you served for one year or several years. Without your direction at the local level, the organization would collapse. Last, but certainly not least, a sincere thank you to the cornerstone of RWTO/OERO, the general membership. Your involvement enables us to carry out our caring and sharing initiatives. Whether you generously donate food or toiletries, drive a senior to a luncheon, invite a colleague to join your Branch, buy tickets for raffles and draws which will benefit a charity, help with wording for a Branch resolution, write a message to an Area Director, vote as a delegate, or provide input in another way, your commitment is evident.

Thank you! Merci! I am so proud of our committed team! I hope you feel the same.

Mary Jane

Insurance Matters

Convalescent Benefit

How many of you think you are well covered with your current Health Insurance Plan? Many of you may still be covered under your former Board of Education Health Insurance Plan. Some of you will have joined the RTO/ERO Plan, which is an excellent one. It is true that you are well covered for your usual extended health care needs, doctor's and dentist's visits, semi-private hospital care, eye glasses, physiotherapist treatments, and so on.

Our RWTO/OERO Hospital and Home Care Plan has been specially designed for retired WOMEN teachers, many of whom are single, separated, divorced, or widowed. Many may be living in a community that is not close to family and friends so, when they get sick, they often need this kind of special assistance.

The Convalescent Benefit covers you AFTER you have been hospitalized for more than three consecutive days for any illness, accident, or surgery and must remain indoors thereafter. You need NO receipts to apply for this benefit, only your doctor's Statement that you have been in hospital for three days or more. It is possible to claim the $350 per month benefit for up to six months! If your hospital stay was less than three days due to Outpatient surgery or surgery requiring hospital confinement of less than three days and you must remain indoors to recover, the company will pay $72.50 per week to a maximum of four weeks. The cost - $173.88 per year ($14.49 per month)! What a bargain!

There's more! If you are married, your husband can also be covered by this Plan. For only $186.84 per year ($15.57 per month), he can enjoy the same benefits.

Still there's more! While in hospital, you can claim $25 per day (up to $600) with no receipts for those everyday comfort benefits like TV, telephone, or magazines. What's not to like about that?

Now for my own personal story. I have been retired for over 20 years. When I first learned about this Insurance Plan, I decided that I would purchase it because I understood about the special Convalescent Benefit. When I spoke to my husband about it, his response was that he did not need "any more insurance" We were well covered under his employer's very generous Health Insurance Plan - and now that we were both retired - it was FREE. In spite of his reluctance to take out an additional plan, I decided to pay for my coverage as well as his. Well, the interesting part of this story is that HE collected under this RWTO Plan five times. No receipts were needed for any of these, only the doctor's signature that he had been hospitalized for the required time. He has since passed away and I have now been a widow for eight years. I had never claimed for any illness or surgery until this past summer when I was hospitalized for seven days for knee replacement surgery. Rather than return home to an empty townhouse, I decided to check into the brand new Retirement Residence located right around the corner from where I live. It was like a five star hotel with a private suite, a personal care worker, physiotherapist, doctor once a week and three meals a day. My TV and telephone were also included in the cost. My Convalescent Benefit paid for my three-week stay. I returned home fully recovered and able to look after myself. Now that is a success story, for sure.

Consider investigating the benefits of RWTO Health Insurance Plan. Call Manulife Financial at 1-866-410-0550.

Membership News

In March we can start to feel Spring in the air and think about putting away our winter things, heavy coats, scarves, hats. And speaking of hats your Branch should be submitting an entry for the 'Feather in Your Hat' Award. This recognizes "creative innovative and successful activities carried out by a Branch that clearly enriched the programs offered by RWTO/OERO." All of you are doing a wonderful job with this. Don't be afraid to share your success. The winners announced at the June Convention are presented with a special hat as their reward. Burlington who received a "Hat" last year have come up with a great follow-up activity. Bev Pickard, our Provincial Communications Coordinator initiated a way to keep the "hat" circulating in their group. At each meeting they "Pass the Hat". Whoever receives it is responsible to make the presentation at the next gathering. What a great way to promote "caring and sharing." Thank you Burlington for another great idea.

We can all use new ideas and with that in mind your Membership Committee will be presenting a "Chat 'n' Chew" Workshop at the Convention, where you will have an opportunity to share good ideas your Branch has discovered in the areas of program, membership, meetings and fund raising. Some of our best ideas come out of having a chance to "Chat'n'Chew."

We hope you will be using the poster that was distributed to all Directors and Presidents last November. Spring is a good time to put them up in your communities to spread the word about our organization. We want to share all the good things RWTO/OERO has to offer to all retired women teachers.

Branch News

Dundalk-Highpoint

The spirit of “sharing and caring” is alive and well in the Dundalk-Highpoint Branch. One example is the generosity displayed at our November meeting when the Roll Call was an unwrapped gift for a child. Members sewed nightgowns, made books, brought a variety of articles and donated dollars. All this went to Dundalk’s Christmas Cheer Campaign and helped to make a brighter Christmas for some children. Special accolades to our member, Hazel Scutt who is a dedicated lead volunteer for this local community program.

Haldimand

Each year, as has become our custom, the RWTO group celebrates Christmas with a social held at the Dunnville Golf and Country Club. It’s not the food that brings us together, though the food is always good. It’s not the door prizes, though it’s always nice to win something. The thing that draws us together is the opportunity to be among friends and colleagues, some of whom we might not otherwise see. This year we were happy to share our good times with Donna Parkhill, our Area Director. Each year at this event we reach beyond our own group to collect items for the local women’s shelter. The generosity is amazing. RWTO serves a real purpose caring and sharing, both for each other and for community outreach.

Hamilton-Wentworth

Our year started off in September with Meet and Greet for newly retired teachers. Eight new members joined. A new event was the Afternoon Tea at the Scottish Rite. We enjoyed the High Tea and being in a historic building. We have four main luncheons each year. The average attendance is about 145. At each luncheon our organization supports local charities who support women and children. At the Christmas luncheon we gathered mitts, scarfs, hats etc. to fill four large garbage bags which went to four different local groups. $769.85 was also collected for CHML Christmas Tree of Hope. At our final luncheon in May we collect toiletries for women’s shelters. To add to our fun we have 16 interest groups. including the Citizenship Court and the Lunch Bunch who meet once a month on a Tuesday at different restaurants.

Lanark

For fun and fellowship galore, Lanark Branch RWTO started in September with a Chinese Buffet luncheon in Perth, with the ‘Caring Clowns Connection’. Two retired ladies have chosen to give out smiles and hugs as they visit groups with their colourful costumes and comical stories. Following a delicious ham luncheon at the Lombardy Agricultural Hall in October, we enjoyed a lively group of seniors, ‘Just for Fun’, demonstrating their line dancing skills. Some of our members happily joined in. In November, Interval House was the recipient of toiletries and a monetary donation. A counselor received these gifts and explained some of the needs they encounter.

A retired principal from the Upper Canada Board, Bev Bennett-Arnold, recounted her experiences as an International Supply Teacher in Asia, Africa and Europe. Amongst other experiences, we heard about Bev’s one room ‘apartment’ in Italy, the stifling temperatures in Africa and her challenging travel arrangements.

Niagara Falls

The Niagara Falls Branch has had another busy year extending the motto of caring and sharing into the community. Our members have generously supported a number of local agencies in need of assistance. We provided a wide selection of toiletries, clothing, linens, cookware, and food vouchers to the YWCA’s shelter program for homeless teens, women and their children. We donated $100 to the Alzheimer’s coffee hour, $220 to the local food bank, and $100 each to the Eventide Home for Seniors and the Education Foundation of Niagara.

On a lighter note city historian, Sherman Zavitz, entertained us in April with an informative presentation on the life and times of our local hero, Laura Secord. In December our teachers learned how to create attractive Christmas displays and decorations with little effort and skill, thanks to a demonstration by a consultant of Michael’s, the craft store.

We are so proud of our president, Donna Parkhill, who is also the fabulous Director of Area Four.

Ottawa-Carleton

At our AGM in May, the Ottawa-Carleton Branch enjoyed a wonderful talk by member, Marian Roks. Marian and her friend, Jo Marchant have a charitable organization, called Project TEMBO, Tanzania Education and Micro-Business Opportunity, which provides education and empowerment to girls and women in two villages, Longido and Kimokouwa, in northern Tanzania. Through Project TEMBO, students are encouraged and sponsored to complete their secondary education and become teachers. As well, their families are helped to start small businesses with the provision of beads or animals and feed. Also, a guest house has been built for visitors to stay in when they see Project TEMBO at work. A donation of more than $1500.00 was collected for Project TEMBO from the more than eighty members in attendance. We are proud to have helped this worthy project. Individual members continue to support Project TEMBO. For more information about this project, see www.projecttembo.org and www.temboguesthouse.com.

Peterborough

Three formal dinner meetings, monthly Let’s Do Lunches, a Games Day and Christmas Quarter Fundraiser Auction, a Carol Sing Tea party and a Birthday Bash provide loads of fun all year and, best of all, more members. A professional writer taught us how to write, organize and illustrate our memoirs. We heard about the Kawartha Pineridge School Board’s “Champions for Youth” Program addressing the needs of students with legal and/or school attendance problems. RWTO Director, Barbara Moorcroft and our former President

Branch News – continued

Carole Watson spoke and the Cover Girls entertained us. We continue to support the Festival of Trees, the Salvation Army, the hospital's Pediatric Department, and the YWCA Crossroads Shelter for Women. All this is done through bake sales, quarter auctions, book sales and a toonie half and half game. It's amazing how we compete with each other for great sweets and re-gifted items. Finally, we give thanks for our fantastic executive who plan programs and who take care of our treasured and more senior members with cards, flowers, visits and support.

South Bruce

Some of the East Parry Sound RWTO members pose for a picture after the Induction of our 2009-2010 branch executive, June, 2009

Our Spring and Fall meetings continue to be busy. Caring and Sharing are the goals of all our endeavours. We support the Saugeen Grannies, Grandmothers to Grandmothers affiliated with the Stephen Lewis Foundation. Monetary donations and the ongoing collection of gently used jewellery, which is used to raise funds, is a focus. We have had an inspirational

South Bruce practices their 3 R's- relaxing, rejuvenating and recess! including Leslie Uttley, Provincial Secretary, and Mary Jane Finn, Provincial President

speaker, from Innerfit, who told us how to keep the joy in each retirement day. Attendees at the June convention are in for a real treat when he addresses the group. We also support the Bruce County Museum and Cultural Centre. Our raffles and book exchange continue to provide funds to help others. Linking our members through our social events provides many happy times filled with reminiscing and new adventures.

St. Catharines

The St. Catharines Branch has a very active organization with over 300 members who are involved in fourteen activity groups, from walking to bridge to digital photography. We have had two luncheons this fall and a wonderful Christmas Caroling Luncheon in which we raised $1000 for Community Care. Our ladies are also very busy planning the 2011 Convention to be held at the Hilton Hotel in Niagara Falls.

Many of our members have been very busy this Christmas season volunteering at the Toy Bureau and wrapping for the Arthritis Society. With so many members we are able to spread our volunteer time around and our members are great at volunteering.

At each luncheon we have a fifty-fifty draw. Alice Ogden, our oldest member was the winner. We think she won more than she made in her first month of teaching. Our theme this year is Laughing, Sharing and Caring and we certainly have done a lot in these three areas.

Goodwill Report

Our Over Ninety Club continues to grow and it has been a pleasure to celebrate with over 300 Christmas cards sent. It is very rewarding to receive notes from some of these special ladies. Thank you to members of the Hamilton-Wentworth Branch Executive who helped prepare these cards for mailing.

Congratulations to Lillian Johnson, Kitchener-Waterloo, who celebrated her 100th birthday in January and to Jean H. Ford, Mississauga, currently residing in Hamilton, who will celebrate hers in March. Roses have been sent on your behalf to these ladies. Thank you to the branch members who assisted me in this very pleasant task.

Thank you to the Branch Presidents and Goodwill Convenors who continue to keep our Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Gloria Drake, and me informed about any changes in the list of our Over Ninety members. Notification of any change in address and submitting birth dates on registration forms enable us to keep in touch with these very special ladies.

Issues and Concerns

When I asked for ideas for this article, I had many suggestions but the common theme was “ME”.

After we retire our concerns become quite different from when we were younger and working. Even after a few years of retirement, our concerns change. Statistically, we are living well into our eighties and beyond.

Now we are concerned about a pandemic and how to prepare for one.

We are also concerned whether our pensions will be enough. Along with that, concern about our investments cause us to wonder whether we will have enough money to last for our lifetime.

Where will we live, if staying in our home isn't an option when we are unable to drive and take care of our home and ourselves?

Who will take care of me and my investments when I am no longer able?

Since many of our children live far away, who will be our advocate regarding our health and welfare?

As you can see, the main concerns are health, independence and money. After all, as teachers we have always been very independent and self-reliant.

When we retire, our plans are grand but we must review our own situation at least every five years and adjust accordingly in regards to money, shelter and independence.

As we age, we don't like to change but it is a necessary part of life.

Resolutions for the Annual General Meeting 2010

Note: Resolutions that amend the Constitution, which are submitted by the deadline, require a 66% majority vote of the registered delegates. Amendments without prior notice require an 80% majority vote of the registered delegates - Constitution Article X – Annual Meeting, Section 4 (a)

Resolutions from the Board of Directors

Resolution #1

Be it resolved that Article VI of the Constitution

Duties of the Executive Officers be amended as follows:

Move

1. Honorary President

The Honorary President shall:

- a) attend the Fall and Pre-Annual meetings of the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting.
- b) install the elected officers and the members of the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting

To:

Article VII Duties of the Other Members of the Board of Directors.

Rationale:

- Since the Honorary President is a member of the Board and not the Executive, this section should be moved to Article VII Duties of the Other Members of the Board. It should be renumbered as #2.
- This is a housekeeping item, which will place the Honorary President's duties in the correct article.

Resolution #2

Be it resolved that the preamble to the RWTO/OERO Constitution be amended to read:

Mission Statement

We believe that RWTO/OERO is an organization which meets the interests and needs of retired women teachers.

Vision Statement

- RWTO/OERO continually works to be a fully accessible organization to meet the unique needs of retired women teachers.

- RWTO/OERO fosters and promotes interaction among retired women teachers to help members maintain and establish friendships with former colleagues.
- RWTO/OERO provides interesting, stimulating and supportive programmes for all members.
- RWTO/OERO provides a wide range of opportunities for members to use their leadership, communication and creative skills.
- RWTO/OERO is socially conscious and works to establish a visible, outward-looking presence among teachers in particular and the public in general to improve the lives of all women and children.

Rationale:

- These Mission and Vision Statements are a result of the October 2008, visioning exercise in which the Board of Directors participated. They update the previous preamble and reflect the future needs of our organization, building on the special caring and sharing precepts of the past.

Resolutions from the Branches

Resolution #3 from Hamilton – Wentworth

Be it resolved that the Constitution be amended as follows:

Article IV Organization

1. Board of Directors

(b) Executive Officers

(xiii) Archivist becomes a new letter (h)

Rationale:

- A cost savings would be realized as the Archivist would only be attending Board Meetings.
- Repetition would be reduced as the Archivist would present her report once to the Board of Directors instead of reporting the same information to the Executive one month and to the Board the next month. Time would also be saved.
- All duties of the Archivist, listed in the job description, can be fulfilled by just attending Board Meetings.
- A smaller number would facilitate the work of the Executive.

Resolution #4 from Peterborough

Be it resolved that the Constitution be amended as follows:

Article IV Organization

1. Board of Directors

(b) Executive Officers

(xi) Communications Convenor moves to letter (h) or the next letter in sequence.

Rationale:

- By moving the Communications Convenor from the Executive to the Board of Directors, there will be a cost savings.
- Instructions given to the Communications Convenor come from the Board of Directors.
- As a member of the Board of Directors, the Communications Convenor will be part of all decision making at the Board level.

Resolution #5 from St. Catharines

Be it resolved that :

Article IV Organization

1. Board of Directors is amended by the deletion of

(vi) Assistant Provincial Insurance Convenor.

Rationale:

- The intent of this motion and the three that follow is not to eliminate the position Assistant Provincial Insurance Convenor but recognize the value of the position and bring the Board of Directors into balance.
- None other than Insurance has two representatives on the Board of Directors nor does any other Convenor operate independently without the assistance of a committee.
- With the removal of the position Assistant Insurance Convenor from the Board of Directors and placing it into a committee structure, consistent with the rest of the organization, balance and equity is brought to the Executive while maintaining, if not enhancing the position of Assistant Insurance Convenor

Be it resolved that:

Article IV Organization

1. Board of Directors

(f) Standing Committees is amended by the inclusion of Provincial Insurance Committee

Rationale:

- Presently there is no Insurance Committee. A committee is consistent with the operation of other convenors within the organization.

Resolution # 7 from St.Catharines

Be it resolved that:

Article VIII Duties and Structure of Provincial Committees

Section A Standing Committees be amended by the addition of

#10. Provincial Insurance Committee

Rationale:

- This a direct outcome of the previous resolution

Resolution # 8 from St. Catharines

Be it resolved that:

Article VIII Duties and Structures of the Provincial Committees

Section 10 Insurance Committee be amended by the inclusion of the following duties:

The Provincial Insurance Committee shall:

- (a) be chaired by the Provincial Insurance Convenor
- (b) consist of at least one member, appointed by the Board of Directors, who will be an Assistant Provincial Insurance Convenor, in preparation for assuming the convenorship at the end of the Convenor's term.
- (c) consult with the Agent of Record
- (d) organize and present workshops to train local Branch Insurance Convenors, Branch Presidents and Branch Treasurers regarding the Insurance Plan

Rationale:

- The duties for this new committee, as stated, are consistent with the duties of the Insurance Convenor and Assistant Convenor as presently outlined in the Constitution.
- The process of appointment by the Board of Directors is consistent with current procedures as stated in Article VIII Duties and Structure of Provincial Committees, Section A Standing Committees # 6 Communications Committee.

Resolution # 9 from Area 5

Be it resolved that the RWTO/OERO Constitution be amended by substitution to read as follows:

Article VIII Duties and Structure of Provincial Committees

Section B Appointed Committees/Convenors

1. Goodwill Convenor

(e) send flowers to members celebrating their ninety-fifth (95th) birthday

Rationale:

- Very few members reach their 100th birthday. By lowering the eligibility age to ninety-five, we will increase the number of recipients of this recognition and at the same time, for very little cost, increase the visibility and positive profile of RWTO/OERO.

Resolution #10 from Area 5

Be it resolved that the RWTO/OERO Constitution by amended by addition to read as follows:

Article VIII Duties and Structure of Provincial Committees

Section B Appointed Committees/Convenors

1. Goodwill Convenor

(f) inform members who are 95 years old who are still paying dues that they now qualify as Life Members and are no longer required to pay dues.

Rationale:

- Members who qualify to be Life Members should be so informed. This is a gesture of goodwill and should be a duty of the Goodwill Convenor.

Resolution # 11 from Area 5

Be it resolved that the RWTO/OERO Constitution be amended by addition to read as follows:

Article IV Organization

4. Elections

(a) Elections of the Executive Officers

(viii) Recording Secretary

Rationale:

- In this day of email and other electronic means of communication there is no longer a need for the Recording Secretary to live in close proximity to the President.
- If the person holding this position is to be eligible to vote she should be a member of RWTO/OERO who has been elected.

Resolution # 12 from Area 5

Be it resolved that the RWTO/OERO Constitution be amended by the deletion of

Article IV Organization

4. Elections

(d) Appointments to the Board of Directors

(ii) Recording Secretary

Rationale:

- This is a housekeeping motion necessary if the previous motion carries.

Resolution # 13 from Area 5

Be it resolved that the practice of paying an honorarium to the Recording Secretary be discontinued.

Rationale:

- All members of the Board of Directors work hard in their respective roles and none should receive any more financial compensation than another.

Networking Sessions

What Treasurers Need to Know

The workshop will touch on all areas for which the treasurer is responsible. These areas are banking, budgets, accounting records, and responsible reporting to your members.

RWTO Communicates

Bev Pickard, Communication Convenor, and Joyce Fee, Past Communication Convenor, will bring you up to date on our Provincial newsletter and website. Bring along samples of your Branch newsletter and be ready to share ideas.

Chat n' Chew Workshop

Participants should bring successful ideas for Caring & Sharing, Entertainment, Fundraising, Membership, Programming to share with other delegates.

Freedom in The Forest

On Wednesday afternoon, June 2, the delegates have the opportunity to explore London – The Forest City. A number of suggestions are provided:

1. Guided Tour – A Double Decker bus with a covered roof will leave the hotel for a 2 hour tour that includes the University of Western Ontario, Victorian London, and the business areas of the city. A guide will provide a humorous and informative commentary from London's garrison days to present times. The cost is $15. (Maximum 60 - See Registration Form)

2. Self-Guided Tours

Banting House – An excellent museum that tells the story of Dr. Banting's work leading to the treatment of diabetes. This was his home and office.

Art Gallery and Museum – Located at the Forks of the Thames. The museum contains a café, gift shop and views of the Thames River. It is a unique design and is located in London's first settled area when Governor Simcoe considered naming London the capital of Upper Canada.

Eldon House – Built by the Harris family in 1834 when London was a garrison town. It is a time capsule of life in the 1800's and is close to the museum.

Covent Garden Market – Located on King Street (known as Whiskey Row in the 1800's). It has been in continuous operation since then. It contains ethnic foods, small cafés, gifts, etc. Across the street is Jill's Table, a wonderful kitchen shop. Also nearby is Kingsmill's Department Store which has been in the family since the 1800's. It has beautiful goods, as well as an elevator run by a person! There are many eating places on King Street.

3. Independent Activities – Four Points Sheraton is across the street from White Oaks Mall which is one of the largest in SW Ontario. The hotel also has a pool. Some may wish to drive to Port Stanley or Sparta (originally a Quaker settlement).

4. An Information Area will be available to help delegates with tours, maps and (for those without transportation) taxis with fixed rates that can be called.
