The kids used to sing "Spring has sprung, the grass is riz, I wonder where the Birdies is?" Bad grammar but still cute. I think we are all wondering where is the Spring weather? Hopefully this will be the winter's last kick and things will soon be warm and lovely.

I decided I would get out a short Newsletter to just remind everyone of the upcoming events in the next few months. Sherril

Tuesday, April 12 -Spring Luncheon at Addison United Church.

Please be in the church by 11AM for a short meeting and a memorial service for departed members, Evelyn Oakley, Jane Snelgrove and Heather Moore. These ladies were valued, hardworking members and will be sorely missed. After our luncheon, we will be priviledged to hear Jennifer DeBruin speaking about the U.E.L. History of our Region.

Tuesday, May 10th- Lunch at Island Delight, King St. W. Make sure you tell your Phone Contact that you will be attending as we need to confirm our numbers with the restaurant.

RWTO is 60 Years old!!!! Let's Party!!!!

RWTO was formed in 1956 and our group began in 1967. Can you remember back to those times? Do you have pictures? A poodle skirt?
