

London-Middlesex Interest Groups

Friendship Group

This is a very popular group within the whole membership. The aim is to bring members together in smaller interest groups and do fun and friendly things such as our twice monthly breakfasts and hiking/walking.

We look forward to resuming such things as theatre outings, road trip luncheons, car rallying, crafts etc., when Covid-19 restrictions are lifted.

Keeping in Touch & Courtesy/Goodwill

We like to keep in touch with “shut-ins” who are no longer able to attend meetings. In recent months, we have not been allowed to visit homes in person, so Front porch visits, phone calls and cards have been used to help us Keep in Touch.

Book Clubs

Two separate small groups that would normally have monthly meetings after reading a mutually chosen book, now discuss the selection while distance meeting in back yards, large airy rooms, or via Zoom. New members are welcome. “If you are interested in joining a Zoom meeting to discuss books, contact Deb Kaiser at, kaiser50@gmail.com”.

Phone-Callers Group

This is a group of members who each phone a short list of other members to remind them of the upcoming luncheon, who is the Speaker/Topic of the month, the charity of the month and what to bring if members wish to support it.

Since our membership is always growing, additions to the group are welcome. It is a great way to connect with new people. Members may decline to be on the “call list” of course.

Our callers have been instrumental in helping us make our two “wellness checks” with our members during the Stay-at-Home period of recent months.

At Luncheons...

Book Sale

At each regular luncheon meeting members’ pre-owned books are contributed to the Book Sale table to be circulated, for a small cost to new owners. Four of our members organize the books on display, cull them as necessary, and pack them up in sturdy bags to be taken home by about twelve volunteers ready for the next meeting.

This is a very popular fund-raiser which sponsors Branch delegates attending the annual RWTO Convention.

Table Decorations

A very talented group prepares centre-pieces for every table at our six luncheon meetings. They not only enhance our venue but sometimes go home with members, for a small charge, to continue the sharing.
