

The Retired Women Teachers of Ontario (RWTO) Sarnia-Lambton Branch Make "Caring and Sharing Donations" to Community Groups.

At our September 29th Luncheon Meeting we "Enjoyed Learning About Support Groups for Youth in our Community". We made $500 Sharing and Caring Donations to three community groups.

Johnna Johansen presented the donations to Sheila Brown , on behalf of The Gallery in the Grove – Visiting Artist Program in schools; Sean Dillon, on behalf of the VON Children's Program: and Andrea Appeldoorn, on behalf of Access Open Minds. Donations were appreciated by all.

The recipients of the $500 donations were Ross Atkinson and Marilyn Keanecke, on behalf of "Lambton Shores Nature Trails"; Erin Hawrelak, on behalf of "Parents for Parks" in Petrolia and Sydney Vrolyk, for "Summer Snack Program".

Helen Van Slightenhorst was given the 16 table centre pieces for "Hugs for Homeless – Just add Water". Each centre piece was a bag containing 15-20 items that will be appreciated by homeless persons. Catherine Phillips, Treasurer, made the presentation.
