ARTICLE I. INTRODUCTION

The information contained in the Provincial Policies and Procedures Manual (hereinafter referred to as the Policies and Procedures Manual) guides and directs RWTO/OERO in its actions, structure and organization.

Policy answers the following questions:

1. How will the Board of Directors organize and direct the work of RWTO/OERO?
2. What structure will be used to do this?

Procedures:

1. identify specific and detailed steps for carrying out the policies of the organization;
2. are based on policy and are developed to ensure consistent application.

Decisions about Policies and Procedures are recorded in the minutes of all Annual General Meetings (AGM) and Board of Directors meetings. Provincial employees and Board of Directors members must follow the established policy of the organization. All members of the Board of Directors should be familiar with RWTO/OERO Constitution and Policies and Procedures Manual.

The Policies and Procedures Manual is updated and posted annually on the RWTO/OERO website (www.rwto.org) under the title 'About.' Click on Governance.

Updated September 2023

ARTICLE II. STRUCTURE

The Constitution is the basic governing document of the Retired Women Teachers of Ontario/Organisation des enseignantes retraitées de l'Ontario.

All Policies must comply with the Constitution. Thus, the Policies and Procedures Manual is organized so that its Articles correspond directly to the Constitutional Articles that each supports. Please refer to the corresponding Constitutional Article as needed.

As well, Policies are also cross-referenced to relevant Articles located in other sections of the Constitution as well as the Policies and Procedures Manual. It is hoped that this will enable users to easily locate all information available about a particular topic in both documents.

For information regarding the policies and procedures involved in hosting an Annual Convention, please refer to the Convention Handbook.

Handbooks are posted on our Website (www.rwto.org) under the title 'About.' Click on Governance.

CONVENTION HANDBOOK (rwto.org 'About' link under Governance)

6. Convention Definitions and Delegate Reimbursement (October 2011)

Provincial Delegate

The first voting delegate from each and every Branch is called the Provincial Delegate. Allowable expenses for her (i.e. Convention Package Fee, travel and hotel costs) are reimbursed by the Provincial organization.

Branch Delegate

All other voting delegates are called Branch Delegates. Only Branches with 51 or more members, not including Life Members, qualify to send Branch Delegates. The Provincial Organization reimburses only one Branch Delegate per Branch for the cost of the "Convention Package Fee" and the portion of travel expenses, which exceed 800 km. The Branch Delegate may not claim accommodations or meals on route when travelling more than 5 hours each way to an event. (Revised October 2012)

Alternate Delegate

The Alternate Delegate only applies to Branches with 50 or fewer members. This delegate is one who can replace the Provincial Delegate on the floor of the AGM when the Provincial Delegate is unable to serve. The Provincial Organization will reimburse the Alternate Delegate for the cost of the "Convention Package Fee". The Alternate Delegate may not claim accommodations or meals on route when travelling more than 5 hours each way to an event.

7. Convention Package Fee

This fee includes the cost of registration plus all the meals (with the exception of Wednesday lunch) at the convention.

 - ii. The second delegate's (i.e. first Branch Delegate) travel expenses shall be reimbursed as outlined above, but only, for the portion of the approved mileage that exceeds 800 km. Thus, if a second delegate from a Branch travels a total of 1000 km return by chartered bus, she shall only be reimbursed for $\frac{1}{4}$ of the bus fare (i.e. $(1000 - 800)/800 = \frac{1}{4}$).
 - iii. Whenever a meal is available as part of the Convention program, members are expected to register for the Convention meal. There should not be any meal receipts for other meals during the Convention.
 - iv. The full Convention meal prices shall be reimbursed for the member's meals based on the member's Registration.
 - v. The basic Convention Package fee shall be reimbursed, excluding any late fees.
 - vi. Tours are a discretionary expense provided for members' entertainment, and so they are not eligible for reimbursement.
 - vii. Board or Committee members attending to official RWTO/OERO business during the afternoon on the Wednesday of the Convention instead of going on a tour may have the cost of their lunch on Wednesday reimbursed. Prior approval must be obtained.
(Revised October 2010)
 - viii. Allowable travel, accommodation for one night and AGM Wednesday banquet costs shall be reimbursed by Provincial for any Honorary Membership Award recipient not already eligible to claim these expenses at the Annual Convention at which she receives her award. (Revised October 2017)

Convention - DEFINITIONS AND DELEGATE REIMBURSEMENT - (October 2011)

Provincial Delegate

The first voting delegate from each and every Branch is called the Provincial Delegate. Allowable expenses for her (i.e. Convention Package Fee, travel and hotel costs) are reimbursed by the Provincial organization.

Branch Delegate

All other voting delegates are called Branch Delegates. Only Branches with 51 or more members, not including Life Members, qualify to send Branch Delegates. The Provincial Organization reimburses only one Branch Delegate per Branch, for the cost of the Convention Package Fee and the portion of travel expenses, which exceed 800 km. The Branch Delegate may not claim accommodations or meals on route when travelling more than 5 hours each way to an event. (Revised October 2012)

Alternate Delegate

The Alternate Delegate only applies to Branches with 50 or fewer members. This delegate is one who can replace the Provincial Delegate on the floor of the AGM when the Provincial Delegate is unable to serve. The Provincial Organization will reimburse the Alternate Delegate for the cost of the Convention Package Fee. The Alternate Delegate may not claim accommodations or meals on route when travelling more than 5 hours each way to an event. (Revised October 2012)

Convention Package Fee

This fee includes the cost of registration plus all the meals (with the exception of Wednesday lunch) at the Convention.

- a. The above policies will apply for reimbursement of all allowable expenses of the Executive, Board of Directors Members, Provincial, Branch and Alternate Delegates (as defined above), Seminar Speakers, Steering Committee Members and other approved invitees except as follows: (Revised October 2017)
 - i. If there is a chartered bus for the trips between the member's home area and the Convention site, and if its arrival and departure dates coincide with the member's RWTO/OERO Convention meeting schedule, members are expected to take the bus and to claim only their share for the chartered bus (with their bus receipt attached) plus their mileage to and from the chartered bus pick-up/drop-off point.

- ii. The second delegate's (i.e. first Branch Delegate) travel expenses shall be reimbursed as outlined above, but only for the portion of the approved mileage that exceeds 800 km. Thus, if a second delegate from a Branch travels a total of 1000 km return by chartered bus, she shall only be reimbursed for $\frac{1}{4}$ of the bus fare (i.e. $(1000 - 800)/800 = \frac{1}{4}$).
- iii. Whenever a meal is available as part of the Convention program, members are expected to register for the Convention meal. There should not be any meal receipts for other meals during the Convention.
- iv. The full Convention meal prices shall be reimbursed for the member's meals based on the member's Registration.
- v. The basic Convention Package Fee shall be reimbursed, excluding any late fees.
- vi. Tours are a discretionary expense provided for members' entertainment, and so they are not eligible for reimbursement.
- vii. Board of Directors or Committee members attending to official RWTO/OERO business during the afternoon on the Wednesday of the Convention instead of going on a tour may have the cost of their lunch on Wednesday reimbursed. Prior approval must be obtained. (Revised October 2010)
- viii. Allowable travel, accommodation for one night and AGM Wednesday banquet costs shall be reimbursed by Provincial for any Honorary Membership Award recipient not already eligible to claim these expenses at the Annual Convention at which she receives her award. (Revised October 2017)
- ix. The cost of the luncheon for each RWTO/OERO member who attends the Thursday Banquet as an 'Over 90s' guest or as 'Mother and Daughter' guests, or as 'Aunt and Niece' guests shall be paid by Provincial. Moreover, the luncheon cost for one companion for an 'Over 90s' guest (s applicable) shall be paid by Provincial. (Revised October 2018)

The following Procedures will be used to implement this policy:

- 1. Expense claims must be submitted within forty-five (45) days of the event and not later than March 31, the end of fiscal year. Expense claims submitted after forty-five (45) days must be submitted to the President before any payment will be made. If the President decides there were special circumstances causing late submission of the claim, then authorizing payment would follow. (Revised October 2012)
- 2. The Executive Secretary-Treasurer will prepare an Expense Report for each eligible individual for each meeting and for the Convention. She will send blank Expense Reports to eligible members for other purposes on request.

3. Relevant receipts should be attached to a separate sheet to accompany Expense Reports.
