

Sault Ste. Marie RWTO Newsletter Fall 2012

SHARING CARING HAVING FUN

New members who received pins: Brenda Gallander and Brenda Ostaff

Past president who received a pin: Marg Walker

Memorial: Sadly, Iva Beaton has passed away. Sandy Fulcher presented a touching eulogy at the Nov. Meeting

October Hallowe'en Joint Meeting with Central Algoma Members at Echo Bay Central Church was ghoulish fun! Most members wore costumes or donned black and orange. A delicious lunch was served. Provincial President Leslie Uttley attended and kept us "in stitches" with her humour by relating stories from her childhood and teaching days. She left us with a few gems: "Be thankful wrinkles don't hurt"; "You have lots of photos in your heart from your teaching days"; and "Kids remember how you made them feel, not what you taught".

Leslie Uttley was dressed as a letter carrier.

Gerry Yeo was a witch.
Rita Wagner was a ghost.

Kathy Greening posed
as a witch.

Lorraine DeFazio was Darth Vader.

November Christmas Meeting at the United Baptist Church on Malabar was a joyous way to start the holiday season! The hall was filled with the aroma and flavours of baking and the sounds of ladies chatting, laughing and singing carols. We had our annual cookie exchange, Josie prepared boxes for members who need to know that we care, we had a Christmas partner quiz led by Bernice, we enjoyed a light lunch, and we participated in a book swap and a sing-along. We donated $100 to Christmas Cheer.

Joyce Mertes played the piano. Carol Coutu accompanied us with the guitar and led us in the song along with Rita Wagner.

Sandie Fulcher selected a plate of delicious cookies.
