BRANCH SPRING MEETING

Our spring meeting was held at Massey House, Newcastle on May 7, 2014. President, Astrida Jenkinson -Chalmers welcomed everyone. After the singing of 'O Canada', Vicki Cubitt, the past president, conducted a moving memorial service for Aline Austin. New members and guests were introduced.

Astrida then led the business portion of the meeting. Carolle Kennedy-Harding reported that she had the new rate tables, application and claim forms for the RWTO/OERO insurance plan with her, and encouraged members to join the plan. She also reminded us to keep all receipts, air tickets and luggage tags from travel for any submitted claims. Members should receive a tax form receipt each year for paid insurance premiums. Vicki Cubitt informed us that the Breakfast Club, the 'Chat & Chew' group still is meeting regularly with 8 to 10 women at each breakfast. In April, an outing to Ajax Downs for members, their spouses and friends was held. The branch birthday party will be on June 10th at 1:30 pm at the Kingsway Arms Retirement Home in Bowmanville. Archivist, Barbara Moorcroft, reported that some completed personal history information forms still need to be submitted. The silent auction of gently used books raised $20.00 to help with branch expenses, and $69 was collected for Big Brothers & Sisters of Clarington. Astrida and Barbara spoke to the resolutions that are to be discussed at the 2014 Convention in Ottawa. The 2014-15 executive will be installed at the Fall Meeting in September. Astrida thanked the members for their support during her three term as president.

The 2013-14 Cora Bailey Award for our branch was presented to two recipients this year, Jane Bryant and Joyce Bentham, two past presidents. Joan Smith and Barbara Moorcroft presented the awards respectively. Congratulations were extended to Jane and Joyce as the descriptions of their invaluable contributions to our local RWTO/OERO Northumberland South Durham Branch were read. Both women were deeply committed, and still are, to the work of our local branch, and richly deserved the honour.

PROVINCIAL CONVENTION RESOLUTIONS

At our spring meeting in May, Astrida Jenkinson-Chalmers and Barbara Moorcroft spoke to the resolutions to be presented at the June Convention. A vote was held on each of the resolutions so that our two delegates, Astrida and Carolle Kennedy-Harding, had an idea of the feelings of those attending our meeting. One of the resolutions (#5) had been submitted by our Branch.

Results: #1 - Carried
#2 - Defeated
#3 - Amendment was made but was defeated. Original resolution carried.
#4 - Deferred to Board of Directors. Further motion made - carried.
#5 - Withdrawn as our delegates discovered that incoming executive is trying to reduce costs.
#6 & #7 - new resolutions brought to the floor - 6 defeated, 7 carried.

Please read your fall provincial newsletter 'Connections' for full description of the resolutions.

BRANCH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Our branch had a wonderful time at Kingsway Arms Retirement Home in Bowmanville on June 10, 2014. We had a good turnout of our members (mainly executive) and the residents of the home. There was lots of laughter and singing. Our singsong led by Bunny Wright and accompanied by Vicki Cubitt and Carolle Kennedy-Harding was great, and was especially enjoyed by the residents. Lovely cookies, punch and a warm welcome were provided by the staff at this beautiful retirement home. Do join us for the upcoming great birthday party in 2015!

OTHER NEWS

Membership Fees: If you have not paid your 2014-15 fees, they will be collected at the fall meeting, September 29th. Members involved in the RWTO group insurance must renew membership. Membership cards will be distributed at the meeting. If you are unable to attend, please send your fees to the treasurer by September 30th.

ISSUES & CONCERNS (from the editor)

In the spring issue of our provincial newsletter under the heading of Issues & Concerns, the following information about 'Power of Attorney VS Executor of a Will' was given. It was regarding a letter received by the Provincial 'Issue and Concerns' Convener. I felt that it was worth repeating in our newsletter.

The writer of the letter stated that her husband passed away six years ago. She was the executor of the will and all their worldly possessions were to be transferred to her. She included in her letter what she learned.

1. Power of Attorney ceases the moment the person dies. That means, it was useless after his passing. Because the bank account was in his name only, even though she had power of attorney, it had to go to probate which is costly. This is a formality but it is expensive. All worldly goods should be in both names.
2. Before you ask a lawyer to settle the estate, ask what it will cost to do so. I chose the lawyer who made up our will a couple of years earlier. It was very simple as we were executors to one another. It never occurred to me to ask what it cost to settle the estate. I never even saw the lawyer. I only dealt with the legal clerk.

The bill was $3 900. After my complaint, it was reduced to $3 600. I still felt this was too much.

There could not have been that much work; there was not that much to transfer. Therefore, I went to court. Justice prevailed and the judge reduced my bill to $800.

A special thank you to the person that shared her experience through the 'Issues & Concerns' provincial convener in the provincial newsletter.
